

Rita Evans artist talk at Hadleigh Old Fire Station 5 March

A talk by artist Rita Evans will be held on Thursday 5th March at ACAVA's Hadleigh Old Fire Station [1]. Evan's talk has been titled Wool Matrix: Hybrid Machines.

Fabricating temporary structures, Rita Evans' work melds audio-triggered video projections with raw materials to produce matrices of light, shadow and colour. In this talk, Rita will introduce some of the inspiration and ideas behind her practice.

ENAS Presents... is a new series of touring talks by artists based in studios across Essex, designed to bring their work out of the studio to new audiences, and enable artists to come together to share ideas about practice. The first in our series of talks features Rita Evans, an artist based at Acme High House Artists' Studios in Purfleet who will be speaking at Hadleigh Old Fire Station.

All talks are free to ENAS members. Non-members: £3.

For more information or to book your place, please visit ENAS Eventbrite page.

Event page [2]

Event Location:
Hadleigh Old Fire Station
High Street
Hadleigh, SS7 2PA

Image sourced from ENAS [2] website: Still from 2009 performance documentation of Disembodied Light Orchestra 2009, courtesy of the artist.

Back to news [3]

Source URL: <https://www.acava.org/news/rita-evans-artist-talk-hadleigh-old-fire-station-5-march#comment-0>

Links

Header image <http://www.hofs.org.uk/>

[2] <http://essexstudios.org.uk/event/enas-presents-rita-evans>

[3] <https://www.acava.org/news>