

Nicola Winstanley's residency and exhibition at Acava Studios Spode Works

Nicola Winstanley has been selected by Acava and AirSpace to carry out a 3 month residency at Acava Studios Spode Works [1]. Her residency focuses on the impact of the new studios on the town of Stoke and the value of creative labour in a changing city.

The residency will conclude with an exhibition at Acava Studios Spode Works [1] in January and is being documented by the hour using the hashtag #stokeartistatwork on Twitter. Nicola is blogging throughout her residency and her thoughts and actions can be found on her personal website [2].
