

Grenfell Tower Disaster

ACAVA's Blechynden studios and headquarters, 80 yards from the catastrophic Grenfell Tower inferno, is scattered with floating black debris, but undamaged.

It is behind the police cordon and we have been unable to enter our building until today, Thursday. Only those working there will be admitted at present and there is no access for vehicles, visitors are advised to phone for a update next week.

**Update 20th June 2017****

The office has now re-opened to visitors
