

Cardboard Citizens workshops in North Kensington

Cardboard Citizens is bringing workshops to the North Kensington area at Acava's Maxilla Studios.

Cardboard Citizens is running a series of workshops for the community affected by the Grenfell tragedy, where you get the chance to explore issues that are important to you, using drama, games and fun activities.

When:

Fri 8 sep, Mon 11 sep, Fri 15 sep 2017, 2-5pm

Where:

@ Maxilla Studios

4 Maxilla Walk

London W10 6NQ

Share your experiences in a safe, supportive environment. You'll meet some great new people from the local community and build friendships.

About Cardboard Citizens

Cardboard Citizens is a theatre company that has been making transformative work effecting change in the lives of people experiencing housing and homeless issues – and in society's perceptions of them – for over 25 years. Cardboard Citizens is the UK's leading practitioner of Forum Theatre and Theatre of the Oppressed, a form of theatre which enables participants to identify their barriers and ways to overcome them.

Cardboard Citizens

Charity number: 1042457

If you have any questions, please contact michael@cardboardcitizens.org.uk [1]

Facebook: CardboardCitizens [2]

Twitter: @CardboardCitz [3]

Web: www.cardboardcitizens.org.uk [4]

Cardboard Citizens workshops in North Kensington

Published on ACAVA (<https://www.acava.org>)

---

Back to news [5]

Source URL: <https://www.acava.org/news/cardboard-citizens-workshops-north-kensington>

Links

[1] <mailto:michael@cardboardcitizens.org.uk>

[2] <https://www.facebook.com/cardboardcitizens/>

[3] <https://twitter.com/CardboardCitz>

[4] <https://www.cardboardcitizens.org.uk/>

[5] <https://www.acava.org/news>

Header image: