Thursdays 4pm-6pm during term time

Young Artists after school club with Emily Fuller

From April 19th we will be running a free Young Artists after school club at The Curve. Each session, children will find out about different artists and experiment with different art techniques, building on their creative skills and knowledge. The term will culminate in an exhibition in a nearby gallery of the work that's been made.

This club is for those who enjoy art, for those who are curious about art, for those who want to improve their skills and for those who want to have fun whilst being creative.

For ages 6-12yrs. Places limited, booking essential.
