

Barham Park Studios

660 Harrow Road
Wembley
London
HA0 2HB

A group of remarkable Georgian Mock Tudor buildings in Wembley has been acquired by ACAVA on a long lease and converted to provide artists' studios and community facilities.

Situated in Barham Park which was landscaped in the 18th Century, and formerly known as Crabb's House, it now houses 31 studios surrounded by mature parkland and gardens with ponds and a conifer plantation.

Wembley
London
HA0 2HB

Country: United Kingdom

Green open space

Tube: Sudbury Town

Buses: 18, 92, 182, 204, 245, N18, H17

~~Gallery Images:~~ Harrow Road

Archived: Current

New:

Features

- Green open space

Transport links

Tube: Sudbury Town

Buses: 18, 92, 182, 204, 245, N18, H17

Rail: Sudbury & Harrow Road

Barham Park Studios

Published on ACAVA (<https://www.acava.org>)

Studio buildings [1] Available studios [2]

Source URL: <https://www.acava.org/studios/building/barham-park-studios>

Links

[1] <https://www.acava.org/studios/studio-buildings>

[2] <https://www.acava.org/studios/available-studios>